calcurse Terminal calendar and todo

CONCEPTS

Three panels: Calendar, Appointments for the selected day, and Todo. Tab cycles them; most keys act on the active panel.

Main screen

Most keys work in upper or lower case; h j k l move like vim. Lower-case c, p and r copy, paste and repeat.

NAVIGATION

Tab
Next panel

Shift + Tab
Previous panel

Arrows
Move selection (or h j k l)

G
Go to a date

Ctrl + G
Jump to today from any panel

ITEMS

Ctrl + A
Add appointment from any panel

A
Add item in the active panel

E
Edit selected item

D
Delete selected item

r
Repeat an item

ITEMS (cont.)

N
Attach or edit a note

TODO LIST

Ctrl + T
Add todo from any panel

Plus
Raise todo priority

Minus
Lower todo priority

PROGRAM

S / Ctrl + S
Save data

Q
Quit (or leave a menu)

**?
Help for the current screen

Shift + C
Configuration menu

COMMAND LINE

calcurse -a
Print today's appointments

calcurse -t
Print todos

calcurse -d <date|num>
Print a date or next <num> days

calcurse -r<num>*
Print appointments for <num> days

calcurse -Q --from <date> --days <num>
Query a date range, then todos

calcurse -i <file>
Import iCalendar file

calcurse -x
Export as iCalendar to stdout